

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Batteries in Camp.—The light batteries will go into camp April 23, and hit the trail for Wyoming on the 25th inst., via Parley's canyon.

Prof. Watson's Lecture.—Prof. Geo. W. Watson lectured on "Deserts" last night, in the First Baptist church, and tonight, lectures on "Courtship and Marriage in Palestine."

Wasatch Drive Bids.—Sealed bids for the Wasatch drive have been received at the Commercial club, and contracts will be awarded later in the week. Work ought to be well under way by May 1.

Three Days' Hike.—The five companies of the Twenty-ninth Infantry stationed at Fort Douglas started out today, on a three days' hike under the command of Maj. Pendleton. They are in heavy marching order.

Precinct Meeting.—The Republican district chairman of the First precinct will hold a meeting on Saturday night in the county recorder's office. The call was issued by Precinct Chairman Julian Kelly and Secy. J. M. Rasmussen.

To Refund Bonds.—The county commissioners yesterday afternoon adopted a resolution providing for the refunding of county bonds in the sum of $350,000 on July 1. The county clerk was authorized to advertise for bids for the bonds to be opened at noon on June 14.

School Banquet.—The annual high school senior banquet will be held next Friday, at the Commercial club. The committee which is preparing for the occasion consists of the following: Lester Balckner, chairman; Henry Richardson, Julian Bamberg, Carrie Atkin and Edith Chapman.

In Session Today.—The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows in annual session today, is discussing the proposed amendments to the constitution. This evening, the Rebekahs will exemplify the work of their degrees. The Utah Association of Veteran Odd Fellows will hold its annual banquet May 1.

Iron Moulders' Strike.—Word has reached this city that the strike of the local union of iron moulders has received the sanction of the international body, and John Hartman of the moulders from Tacoma will visit Salt Lake and endeavor to settle the difficulty between the men and the masters.

Elks' Convention.—The Elks' association, the executive committee of the various lodges of the order in the state, has arranged for an executive meeting May 21 next, and the state convention to be held in Park City, June 17, also, to get things started for the pilgrimage to Denver in attendance on the national convention.

Exhibition Drill.—The battalion of High school cadets will give another exhibition drill on the 25th inst., such as was given when the governor and his staff made their inspection. The cadets are preparing to hold a series of dances at Saltair next month, by which they expect to raise enough money to furnish the much needed equipment.

The Honor System.—The High school seniors met yesterday afternoon, to take action on the honor system which Principal Eaton has been agitating for the last two months, and it was decided to have a committee draw up a pledge for all who were willing to sign it. It was also decided to have a model designed for a school emblem or insignia to be used as an official seal and on all school stationery, etc.

New Foundry Company.—Articles of incorporation of the Hyrum A. Silver Foundry and Machine Company of this city have been filed with the county clerk. The capital stock of the company is $150,000, divided into shares of the par value of $1 each. J. J. Jones, Jr., president; Hyrum A. Silver, vice president and manager; S. B. Robbins, secretary and treasurer; G. J. Silver, assistant manager; Culbert L. Olsen, attorney.

Wants $27,250.—H. E. Cary of New York is suing Thomas Chamberlain for the sum of $25,000, with interest and $1,250 for attorneys' fees. The defendant is a resident of the county of Utah, and the alleged debt is secured by a mortgage on certain lands situated in the county named. The case was transferred to and filed in the United States district court yesterday, and the plaintiff asks that the mortgage be foreclosed and the land be sold to satisfy the same.

A Lady Mine President.—Mrs. M. M. Garwood, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Reno, Nev., also a well known publisher of that city is spending a few days in Salt Lake on her way to Denver. In addition to her other offices, Mrs. Garwood is president of the Harris Extension Mining company, a $500,000 corporation, and vice president of the Rocky Hill Extension company. Her properties are all on the border, and she says that section of Nevada generally is enjoying a degree of prosperity hitherto unknown in its history.

The C. S. Martin Coal Co. are filling orders promptly for all kinds of coal.

FRANK B. STEPHENS HOME.

Attended Meeting of Directors of Utah Gas & Coke Company.

Atty. F. B. Stephens returned last evening from Chicago, where he went to attend the first meeting of the board of directors of the Utah Gas & Coke company, and says that contracts have been made for a gas holder having a capacity of 1,500,000 cubic feet, 50 miles of gas mains, structural iron and steel and other material for construction.

The general superintendent, W. L. McCorkindale, has arrived from Sherman, Texas, and Mr. Stephens is confident that in 10 months the company will be prepared to do business.

While away, Mr. Stephens visited the Milwaukee plant of which the new Salt Lake plant is to be a duplicate with improvements, and says bids are being received for the latter. The company must have 80 miles of mains laid within two years, and it is claimed that 50 miles will have been laid by next fall, while within two years 100 miles will have been laid. The directors at Chicago elected these officers: President, Douglas Smith; vice president, George A. Snow; secretary, John A. Bryant; assistant secretary, E. H. Hays; treasurer, J. B. Sears; chairman of the board of directors, Granger Farwell. The other members of the board of directors are John Primley, David Mayer and John H. Hays. Executive committee, Messrs. Farwell, Smith and Snow.

President Smith is head of the Liquefaction company of Chicago and is a member of large Utah firms. David Mayer is senior member of the financial house of David Mayer & Co. John J. Bryant is manager of the bond department of Granger Farwell & Co., and J. B. Sears is member of the same office. John Primley is a capitalist, Mr. Hays is head of the counting department of the Milwaukee Gas Light company.

CAUGHT COLD WHILE HUNTING A BURGLAR.

Mr. Wm. Thos. Lanoran, provincial constable at Chippewa Falls, says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I was completely cured. This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior merits have become known. For sale by all druggists."

HONOR TO VETERANS.

Reception Given Last Evening—An Address by Fisher Harris.

A reception was given last evening at the residence of Mrs. Kato B. Anderson in honor of the Confederate veterans and women of Salt Lake. Hon. Fisher Harris made an address on southern history, and Mrs. S. M. Day presided. A number of ex-Confederates gave reminiscences of Civil War times, and there was a musical by members of the new Euterpe club under the leadership of Mrs. Anderson, among the singers being Misses Margaret Harris, Minnie Windgate, Winifred and Ella Dyer and Lena Rives. Miss Winifred Dyer also gave a dramatic reading, and Mrs. Rives a piano number. The dining room was decorated with Easter lilies.

Feel languid, weak, run-down? Headache? Stomach "off"? Just take Bitters. Bitters tones liver and stomach, promotes digestion, purifies the blood.

PROF. SKELTON'S PUPILS

Entertained Their Relatives at First Congregational Church.

Prof. George E. Skelton's violin pupils gave a very creditable presentation of skill to a crowded house of their relatives and friends in the First Congregational church last evening. One of the performers was only four years old, named Nettie Snedeker, who captured the audience in a way that would have pleased a professional artist. The youthful and embry artists acquitted themselves with credit, particularly Miss Mary, Brooks, Miss Helen Hartley, Morris Andrews, Clarence Burton and Edward Fitzpatrick. Prof. Skelton has a lot of promising material, and is getting it into good shape for the active work for the children seem to be making gratifying headway under his instruction. He has now enough pupils to organize a junior Symphony orchestra.

THE G. A. R. PARADE.

Two Hundred School Children Will Participate in It.

When the G. A. R. parade on May 10, reached the Pioneer monument, the paraders will find 2,000 school children stationed there, each with a flag. These they will wave at the same time singing patriotic airs. Governor J. C. Cutler and Mayor Thompson will be at the front of the parade, and a welcome to Corporal Tanner from the state and city. The afternoon will be devoted to an executive session of the G. A. R., over 300 people will attend the 6 o'clock banquet in the state armory, and from 9 to 11 p. m., there will be a reception to Corporal Tanner in the parlors of the Commercial club. The committee of entertainment includes ex-Gov. Heber M. Wells, chairman; M. M. Kaighn, secretary; Col. George B. Squires, Maj. A. B. Breiden, O. F. Davis, T. H. Clark, J. G. McDonald, Col. Thomas Webber, Fisher Harris and Adj. Gen. Ray G. Naylor.

RHEUMATISM MAKES LIFE MISERABLE.

A happy home without much valuable possession that is within the reach of mankind, but you cannot enjoy its comforts if you are suffering from rheumatism. You throw aside business to attend to your home and you can be relieved from these rheumatic pains by applying Chamberlain's Pain-Balm. The application will give you relief and its continued use for a short time will bring about a permanent cure. For sale by all druggists.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Tonight the wedding of Miss Josephine Wells and Douglas D. Moffatt will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rulon S. Wells. The ceremony to be performed by Bishop O. F. Whitney and the bridegroom to be Miss Elizabeth Wells. Dale Moffatt acting as best man. Following the ceremony a large reception will be held for the family and friends, and later the bride and groom will leave for a trip to California.

The other interesting marriages of tonight will be that of Miss Grace Radcliffe, daughter of the late Prof. Radcliffe, and Clifton F. Young, which took place at the home of the bride's mother, and that of Miss Polly Wakefield and Percy V. Molson, the ceremony to be performed at the St. Mark's cathedral, and a wedding supper to follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Schuler.

The reception and dance given at the post last night in honor of the departing officers and their ladies, was a delightful affair, only shadowed by the spirit of farewell which permeated the scene. The amusement hall was beautifully decorated in the national colors and these tints also prevailed in the dining room, which was decorated in red and white carnations with a hint of blue to carry out the idea. Rockwood, Maj. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, Capt. and Mrs. S. D. Struick, Capt. John Madden, Lieut. and Mrs. John Lund and Lieut. and Mrs. H. F. Williams.

Mrs. Don Porter and Mrs. Sam Porter entertained at a delightful affair today in honor of Mrs. Charles Spencer Mann.

Mrs. F. J. Fabian was hostess at a bridge tea today.

Mrs. H. D. Styer of Logan is here visiting with her parents, Maj. and Mrs. Wilkes.

Mrs. Henry Lawrence entertained at a delightful afternoon affair yesterday in honor of Mrs. J. H. Young, the rooms being decorated with spring flowers and about 30 guests being present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser entertained at dinner last night in honor of Miss Wakeling and Mr. Molson, covers being laid for eight.

Miss Rehan Spencer celebrated her 16th birthday anniversary in an Easter dinner at which about seven of her intimate friends were present. The decorations and all details were carried out in the Easter idea, the centerpiece being a miniature German evergreen tree, amid whose branches perched innumerable tiny chickens, and the place cards were whole eggshells with the name of the guest and a suggestive sentiment engraved in the eggshell with a tiny chicken perched outside. Other details carried out the idea and the affair was a most enjoyable one, one of the features being the reading of an original birthday poem written by Margaret Whitney, in honor of the occasion. The guests were Helen Ellerbeck, whose birthday also fell on the same day, Margaret Whitney, Burdette Clawson, Blanche Knutson, Juliet Knutson, Lynne Knutson and Helen Mead.

A number of parties celebrated Arbor day with picnics in the near canyon, among them a party of about a dozen who spent the day in City Creek canyon, returning at dusk. Present were Misses Florence Farnsworth, Rhea Rogers, Hazel Hanson, Jean and Rhea Spencer and Messrs. Russell Hossley, Horace Whitney, Allan Spencer, Morrill Farr and Seymour Wells.

Mrs. E. O. Cary entertained the members of her card club Monday.

Monday Father Kieley of the Catholic church united in marriage Miss Una V. Willis of Denver and H. P. O'Reilly of this city, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. H. C. Manning, in the presence of the families and intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly are at home at the Kenyon.

Mrs. John Lewis was guest of honor yesterday afternoon at a card party given by Mrs. A. B. Hirth.

Mrs. H. S. Stowe entertained at a bridge tea yesterday, the affair being the first of a series.

Mrs. Verna Young was hostess at an informal but pleasant affair Monday night in honor of Miss Louise, Moyle, the rooms being prettily decorated and a delightful evening spent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bransford are home from Lake Arrowhead, where they have spent the most of the winter.

The Daughters of the Revolution will meet at the Exponent office on Thursday, the 19th, to commemorate the battle of Lexington.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulents, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulents bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.
